

A Quick Update for divShare Customers

Dear divShare customer,

You've probably noticed that we've recently made quite a few exciting changes to your divShare account and the overall divShare service offering:

- More storage and increased bandwidth
- Improved Enterprise solutions, including dedicated systems
- Privacy controls for your content on Facebook
- Enhanced in-line viewing controls for most media types
- A completely redesigned interface that is easier to navigate, and looks cool too

We've also implemented the divShare Spotlight on the home page to regularly feature what our customers are up to. Click here to submit yourself or someone you know for the divShare Spotlight.

We hope you'll like the improvements we've brought to you so far, because we have many more you'll get to see soon!

divShare Tip: Are all of your important files at risk? Don't keep your only copy of priceless photos, videos, and work files on your hard drive--back them up quickly and easily to your divShare account! Never lose a photo, never bounce an email, and never share a broken link!*
